

Learn the Language of the Bible in the Original!

After one year of Biblical Hebrew at UT you will be able to read and translate the Ten Commandments in the original pictured left.

After two years of Biblical Hebrew at UT you will be able to read, translate and understand (to the extent anyone can understand) any text of the Hebrew Bible. Prophets and Psalms, Genesis, Kings and Chronicles and much more.

Second year students are also introduced to the world of Hebrew texts outside of the Canon: Hezekiah's Tunnel, the Dead Sea Scrolls and the earliest Sages.

Course Information:

Elementary Biblical Hebrew REST 121 (Fall/Spring Semester 2013/14) meets M/W/F 11:15am to 12:05pm

Intermediate Biblical Hebrew REST 221 (Fall/Spring Semester 2013/14) meets M/W/F 1:25pm to 2:15pm Requires 121/122 or consent of the Instructor

The intermediate sequence (Religious Studies 221-221) meets 'foreign language' under the general education Cultures and Civilization requirement.

Please consult your academic advisor for details.

Questions about the courses? Contact the Instructor!

Jacob Love, jlove14@utk.edu

Jacob Love began teaching Biblical and Classical Hebrew in 1977. He has now taught the language to over 3,700 students.

