

Nosh N' Chat

Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Plant Sciences

Dr. Henry Fribourg

Author of the Holocaust memoir:

ESCAPE TO FREEDOM: A Story of Survival, Dreams, Betrayals, and Accomplishments

Wednesday,
February 12,
12-1 p.m.
1210-1211
McClung
Tower

Born in Paris, France, Dr. Fribourg gives a personal account of the Holocaust in France.

Professor Fribourg joined the university in 1956 as Assistant Professor in Agronomy. He taught graduate courses for more than 30 years. He has lectured at the Institut Supérieur d'Agriculture, Polytechnicum de Lille, France and advised on US-AID projects in Guinea and Cape Verde. He was a Fulbright Lecturer at Ataturk University in Erzurum, Turkey.

Co-sponsored by the Fern and Manfred Steinfeld Program in Judaic Studies and the Creative Writing Program.

Refreshments will be served.